Page 1, Q11. How often do you have issues with district technology?

1	Sometimes the network is just slow, which complicates the lesson of the day.	May 31, 2013 9:40 AM
2	It would be really helpful if all school computers had the same versions of Microsoft Word. This is troublesome because we will save a Word doc in one lab only to try and open in another and realize that my students can't open their files because the computer they're on doesn't have that version of Word.	May 13, 2013 6:29 AM
3	-Read 180 software sometimes locks up on students -Expert 21 online resource can no longer be reached on the reimaged computers (it was working fine initially after reimage)	May 10, 2013 9:16 AM
4	Programs are hard for the primary students to access because they seldom work.	May 10, 2013 9:13 AM
5	Sometimes I have issues with Google proxy settings, but I follow the instructions and it comes back on. But it does it quite frequently.	May 10, 2013 9:00 AM
6	Problems with accessing school email on my iPad as well as Java on my classroom computer - I need java to print my end of the year diplomas.	May 10, 2013 7:32 AM
7	It would be nice if we could update some of the software ourselves instead of always having to have an admin.	May 10, 2013 7:28 AM
8	I tend not to use my laptop or ipads or Nooks because I encounter too many problems with the IP address? Also, the desktop computers in my room are archaic and a constant source of frustration - but at least I have them.	May 10, 2013 7:27 AM

Page 1, Q12. Were summer technology support day(s) offered in August 2012 worth your time?

1	Very helpful! Thanks!	May 13, 2013 6:29 AM
2	My question is why do they need to disconnect all the computers every year. I seems like it takes a great amount of time to get tech things going in fall after everything has been disconnected.	May 10, 2013 1:55 PM
3	I like knowing that someone else will come in and hook up all of my computers and have them ready to go.	May 10, 2013 9:00 AM
4	cables are not always connected correctly to back of tv and this provides time to double check and fix issues; I generally connect my own classroom computers back up	May 10, 2013 7:39 AM
5	It is nice to have individuals available to come set up student computer and the ELMO.	May 10, 2013 7:32 AM
6	too early	May 10, 2013 7:28 AM
7	Was not apart of the district yet.	May 10, 2013 7:27 AM
8	My room was all set up when I got there (which I loved)!	May 10, 2013 7:25 AM

Page 1, Q14. Provide any other comments concerning technology support.

1	Why don't we have Cd/DVD drives? Many of our students don't have internet at home, so we can't distribute things via internet. Also, can we find a way to make sure all parents have an updated email address in Skyward?	May 31, 2013 9:40 AM
2	I appreciate that I can rely on people to come and help me hook everything up after my room has been cleaned. I also appreciate that they 'try it out' with me so that I'm ready to go and don't need to contact anyone after school starts. Thanks for putting in the time!	May 15, 2013 1:56 PM
3	Would sign up for tech support, but will be gone that week.	May 13, 2013 8:10 AM
4	I think the staff does a great job!	May 13, 2013 5:41 AM
5	You guys do a great job...need time to train teachers on their web page design. District wants us to do web pages, but we need TIME and TRAINING.	May 10, 2013 11:31 AM
6	I have no concerns to note.	May 10, 2013 7:42 AM
7	Whenever I have a technology related "issue", I get a very fast reponse/solution! I appreciate this VERY much! :-)	May 10, 2013 7:41 AM
8	If they are not too early in August. Later August is best.	May 10, 2013 7:28 AM
9	I have had two student teachers this year, and the inability to access the network was a problem because I had to give access to my station to my student teacher. If I could actually use my laptop here, I would have been able to make better use of my time and resources.	May 10, 2013 7:27 AM
10	I greatly appreciate the support and help.	May 10, 2013 7:21 AM

Page 2, Q15. Would you be willing to showcase a technology tip/integration tool at a building staff meeting?

1	I'm pretty slick with Google apps. It seems that a lot of teachers don't use those because they seem complicated to them. Google Drive literally is a powerful tool teachers should be using. ~Miss Lewin	May 31, 2013 9:40 AM
2	Have shown Reading Eggs but would be willing to share other tech if needed.	May 31, 2013 8:48 AM
3	I would be willing to be in on a group effort. I use a lot of interactive sites that could be put on a list instead since the technology aspect isn't that difficult.	May 15, 2013 5:47 AM
