2	Would appreciate acknowledgement of concern through email, and general time frame for addressing the problem.	May 17, 2012 6:13 AM
3	As someone who manages a computer lab, I believe there is an issue of students in the lab unsupervised. Because I need to leave the lab unlocked when I leave for the day, students have been in the lab after school unsupervised.	May 16, 2012 5:55 AM
4	It would be nice to be 'trusted' with the administrator passwords so that I could preform software updates and make changes to my desktop as needed instead of waiting for someone else to take care of it.	May 15, 2012 5:36 AM
5	I appreciate all the tech support people do.	May 14, 2012 5:58 PM
6	Technology day is good in theory but It is very upsettinh when you take time out of your schedule to be at school and no one is there to help when they say they are going to be.	May 14, 2012 2:49 PM
7	With the ever increasing push for using technology in our classrooms, we need more support in each building when problems arise. One person per building in my opinion will not solve problems immediatly which is what staff want considering we only have a specific amount of time with the kids in their classes, in the computer labs, and within the unit they are covering.	May 14, 2012 2:40 PM
8	had a computer taken out of the lab in October and was not replaced by the end of the year. 20 students and 19 machines is not a good combination	May 14, 2012 12:20 PM
9	It is sometimes tricky to get the right cable set-up for the sound from the computer to connect through the TV, so the technology team has helped with that.	May 14, 2012 11:47 AM
